10. Public comments and written communications to the Board.

- a. Addressing the Board. In order to allow the recording secretary to properly document those individuals speaking to the Board, persons desiring to address the Board shall first provide the recording secretary with a written request to speak on an agenda item so the presiding officer may recognize them. Each person addressing the Board shall step up to the microphone, give his/her name and limit the time of his/her presentation to three minutes. No person, other than Directors and the person having the floor, shall be permitted to enter into any discussion, either directly or through the Directors. Speakers shall avoid undue repetition of points previously presented to the Board. [Adopted 3/11/2011]
- b. Disruptive Conduct. As per NRS 241.030, any person who willfully disrupts a meeting to the extent that its orderly conduct is made impractical may be removed from the meeting by order of the presiding officer. Willfully disrupting a meeting includes but is not limited to: (1) use of physical violence, threatening to use physical violence, or provoking the use of physical violence, or (2) continuing to use loud, boisterous, unruly, or provocative behavior after being asked to stop, which behavior is determined by the presiding officer or all of the Directors present at the meeting to be disruptive to the orderly conduct of the meeting, or (3) failing to comply with any lawful decision or order of the presiding officer or all of the Directors present relating to the orderly conduct of the meeting. The presiding officer shall request that a person who is engaging in conduct which is disrupting, disturbing, or otherwise impeding the orderly conduct of the meeting to desist from such conduct. If, after receiving a warning from the presiding officer, such person persists in disrupting the meeting, the presiding officer may order him/her to leave the meeting. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

- c. Written Communications. Interested parties, or their authorized representatives, may address the Board by written communication in regard to any matter concerning Board business or over which the Board has supervision, control, jurisdiction or advisory power at any time by direct mail to the Directors or by addressing it to the Executive Director. Copies will be distributed to the Directors. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

11. Voting. Except in the case of an abstention under Paragraph 14 of these By-Laws, all Directors (including the Chair) must vote on all matters before them. Actions of the Board shall be decided upon by the consent of the Directors present at the meeting as provided in ¶3.05.B of the ICA. If a Director chooses to abstain or vote against a matter, it is the responsibility of that Director to clearly and audibly announce the abstention or vote against the matter; otherwise the Director will be deemed to have consented to the matter. Any Director may demand a vote by roll call. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

12. Rules of Procedure.

- a. Use of Roberts Rules of Order or other methods. These By-laws and Rules of Procedure are adopted as provided in ¶3.04.E of the ICA, and therefore the use of Roberts Rules of Order are not mandatory in governing the conduct of meetings of the Board but may be used as guidelines for orderly conduct of the meeting. Considering the need for unanimous consent, the Chair is authorized to employ procedures and methods reasonably calculated to build consensus. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

- b. Precedence of motions. When a motion is before the Board, no motion shall be entertained except (1) to limit comment, (2) to adjourn or fix the hour of adjournment, (3) to lay the motion on the table, (4) to call for the previous question, (5) to continue to a certain day, (6) to refer, (7) to amend, (8) to postpone indefinitely, or (9) to divide the question. Such motions have precedence in the order indicated. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

- i. Motion to lay on the table. A motion to lay on the table is to temporarily by-pass the subject, and may be voted upon without debate. If the motion to lay on the table is unanimously approved, the item shall be listed on the agenda for each successive regular meeting until it is taken off the table. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

- ii. Call for previous question. The purpose of this motion is to close debate on the main motion. It is undebatable and no further discussion shall be permitted until the motion for previous question is acted upon. If the motion for previous question fails, debate is reopened on the main motion. If the motion for previous question passes, the Board shall vote on the main motion. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

 - iii. Continue to a certain day. The purpose of this motion is to delay consideration of a subject until a future time. A motion to continue shall include the specific date when the subject shall again be considered. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

 - iv. Motion to amend. No more than one amendment to an amendment is permitted. When an amendment is before the Board, the Board shall first vote on the amendment, and after the amendment has passed or failed, the Board shall vote on the main motion. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

 - v. Division of Question. If the question contains two or more propositions which may be divided, the Chair may, or upon motion approved by the Board, divide the same. [Adopted 3/11/2011]
- c. Reconsideration. If a motion is defeated by one or more votes against it, any Director who voted against it may move to reconsider the vote on that specific motion during the same meeting or at the next regular meeting of the Board. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

 - d. New motions on matters defeated. If a motion is defeated by one or more votes against it, any Director may make a new motion regarding the same subject matter of the defeated motion if the new motion proposes a variation or alternative result in order to facilitate achievement of unanimous consent. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

 - e. Block votes. If a motion for a block vote or the simultaneous consideration of multiple questions is defeated by one or more votes, any Director may ask for a division of the question or make a new motion on any question within the block vote or simultaneous consideration. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

 - f. Procedure for public hearings. When a public hearing is required for a matter (such as setting rates), the following procedures shall be followed:
 - i. The Chair shall advise the audience of general hearing procedures;

- ii. The Chair may request a show of hands to canvas positions on the matter, and to determine how many people wish to provide testimony;
- iii. Staff may make a presentation, including expert testimony;

- v. Chair opens the public hearing for public testimony; Speakers shall limit their presentations to three minutes unless they represent an organization, in which case they can speak for five minutes provided that no other testimony will be presented on behalf of the organization; The Chair or any Director may ask questions of a speaker (answering questions does not count against the time limits) and may invite a speaker to continue beyond his/her time limit;
- vi. Unless otherwise directed by the Chair, speakers shall speak in the following order: (1) If the public hearing involves a development or other project, the owner or proponent of the project shall speak first; (2) initial speakers for the agenda item; (3) subsequent speakers for the agenda item – who will be asked to provide new pertinent information not covered by previous speakers; (4) initial speakers against the agenda item; (5) subsequent speakers against the agenda item -- who will be asked to provide any new pertinent information not covered by previous speakers; Questions asked by speakers and dialogue addressed to staff members and individual members will be directed, and limited as necessary, by the Chair;
- vii. The public hearing shall be closed and the Board may ask questions of staff members or others, and staff may be asked to respond to any testimony during the public hearing;
- viii. The Chair shall entertain motions, debate and a vote. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

g. Decorum. While the Board is in session, the Directors must preserve order and decorum. A Director shall not, by conversation or otherwise, delay or interrupt the proceedings or the peace of the Board or its presiding officer. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

13. Director correspondence. When a Director sends out correspondence stating that Director's official position regarding a constituent complaint or other issue of the Board, a copy of said correspondence will be placed on file in the Principal Office of the Authority and a copy shall be to the other Directors. [Adopted 3/11/2011]

14. Code of Ethical Conduct; abstentions. NRS Chapter 281A (Ethics in Government) applies to Directors and Directors shall scrupulously comply with the ethical limitations and requirements in that Code. When a Director abstains from a vote on a matter under NRS 281A.420, the abstention shall not be deemed as a vote in favor of the matter (as provided in NRS 241.0355), and either (i) the Alternate Director representing the Member may step in and vote on the matter, or (ii) per NRS 281A.420 (5) the number of votes necessary to act upon the matter, as fixed by the ICA and these Rules is reduced as though the Director abstaining were not a member of the Board, and the unanimous consent of the remaining Directors shall be sufficient to approve the matter.
